Your Training Options

Community Brands University has personalized, flexible, and accessible classes for onboarding and upskilling. Explore personalized learning experiences, including:

In-classroom courses:

Our in-person classroom training is delivered by professional trainers with extensive product experience at training centers nationwide and is ideal if you prefer a hands-on learning environment and in-person interaction with other professionals. In-person training provides certified electronic course materials, structured training, and the knowledge you need to overcome real-world challenges.

Online, instructor-led courses:

Our live webcasts feature multi-hour and day options delivered by professional trainers with extensive product experience. These live webcasts allow you to ask questions and interact with other participants during the session. It is the interaction of a classroom with the convenience of staying right where you are. Live webcast learning also includes electronic or printed course materials and hands-on activities.

Online recorded and self-paced training courses:

Take advantage of our online training courses and learn at your own pace. This format is instructor-led, and participants can interact with the course in a virtual setting. Enjoy the ability to set your schedule and pace and have access to a certified instructor for personal assistance.

Hear From Customers

> "I have found the webinar courses I have taken to be very informative. I especially find the interactive lessons to be extremely helpful."
> – Cindy C., Lake County Board of Developmental Disabilities/Deepwood

> "With each training, I get a better sense of how powerful this software is and how much we are underutilizing it."
> – Carol L., Puerto Rican Action Board

> "We have participated in web-based training classes…and they were extremely helpful. The staff at Community Brands is extremely knowledgeable. We also continue to use them for technical support when we have an issue that we can't resolve. The training classes have helped."

How to Find Your Perfect Course

Ready to enroll? From Course Finder to the MIP Learning Services team, it's easy to join Community Brand University classes.

Course Finder helps nonprofit professionals personalize their learning path by filtering available courses by product type, role and focus area, type of learning, and which courses are CPE-eligible.

Each course features useful icons that highlight what the course offers.

An icon shows what type of class you are signing up for.

The plus sign lets you add the course to your personalized learning path, or add the course to a list of saved courses you want to take.

Register

An award icon signifies if a class is CPE-eligible.

A badge icon showcases if you can earn a digital badge for a class upon completion.

MIP CLOUD Product Knowledge — Administration & Setup

The MIP Learning Services team can also help with enrollment. Email questions to: training@communitybrands.com

Helpful Tips:

- To access your learning path, view the signpost icon to the right of your shopping cart to see all eligible classes.

- Many Community Brands University classes are eligible for continuing professional education credits. CPE credits are based on course hours and accepted by many state boards of accountancy. After completing the class, participants must complete a course evaluation and then will receive their CPE certificates via email.
